History and Origin of Our Lady of Good Success Statue

The Our Lady of Good Success statue is deeply rooted in the Catholic tradition, particularly associated with the Conceptionist Order in Quito, Ecuador. The devotion began in the early 17th century when Sister Mariana de Jesus Torres, a Spanish nun, experienced a series of Marian apparitions. According to historical accounts, the Virgin Mary appeared to Sister Mariana, offering messages of hope, warnings, and prophecies related to the Church and the world. These apparitions led to the creation of the statue, which was commissioned to honor the Virgin Mary under the title of Our Lady of Good Success.

Historical Context and Development

The statue was crafted in the early 1600s, during a period of significant religious and social transformation in the Americas. It was intended to inspire the faithful and serve as a symbol of the Virgin's maternal care and intercession. The original statue remains enshrined in the Conceptionist Monastery in Quito, where it continues to draw pilgrims and devotees.

Significance of the Title "Good Success"

The title "Good Success" (Buen Suceso) refers to the Virgin Mary's role in ensuring favorable outcomes, particularly in spiritual and temporal matters. This title emphasizes hope and trust in the Virgin's intercession during times of difficulty and uncertainty.
