Understanding Prepositions: In, On, and Under

Prepositions are words that link nouns, pronouns, or phrases to other words within a sentence, often indicating spatial, temporal, or logical relationships. Among the most common prepositions are in, on, and under, each expressing a specific spatial relationship.

The Preposition "In"

The preposition "in" is used to describe something enclosed or surrounded by something else. It often indicates position inside a space or area. For example, "The book is in the bag" implies that the book is inside the confines of the bag.

The Preposition "On"

"On" specifies that an object is resting atop a surface. It conveys contact with a surface or a position above something without being enclosed by it. For example, "The cup is on the table" means the cup is positioned atop the table's surface.

The Preposition "Under"

"Under" denotes that an object is located beneath or below another object. It expresses a position lower than or covered by something else. For instance, "The cat is under the chair" indicates the cat is beneath the chair.
